LOCAL MENTION.

AMUSEMENTS TONIGHT. National-The Aborn Opera Company

n "Lohengrin," 8:15 p.m. Belasco-The Butterfield Players in "If I Were King," 8:15 p.m. Columbia—The Columbia Players in .- The Dawn of a Tomorrow," 8:15 p.m.

Poli's Theater-The Poli Players in "Madame X," 8.15 p.m. Gayety-"The Social Maics," 8:15 p.m. Majestic-Continuous vaudeville, 1 to 11

Cosmos-Vaudeville and tures, 1 p.m. to 11 p.m. Casino-Vaudeville and motion pictures, 3 to 10:30 p.m.

Virginia-Motion pictures and illustrat-Imperial-Vaudeville and motion pic tures, 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. Empress Theater-Motion pictures, 10 a.m. to 11 p.m.

EXCURSIONS TOMORROW.

Cars for Great Falls leave 36th and M Garden Hose and Bath Sprays.

S. S. Shedd & Bro. Co., 432 9th n.w. Dolly Madison Candles Are Always Fresh always best. Open Sunday, 720

Bread Is Chesper Than Meats. Holmes' Homemade "Milk" Bread is s rich and substantial that it will satisfy a healthy appetite. Ask Holmes' Bakery for regular delivery. Phone today.

Fine 4-burner Oil Range, $10.00. Eberly's Stove Store, 718 7th st. n.w.

Fireproof Storage for Fine Carpets and draperles. HINKEL, 488 Me. ave will care for your floor coverings and laces as well as clean them. Tel. M. 2025.

Get a Good Lawn Mower.

best makes-easy running-sharp durable—reasonably priced. Dependable parden tools. P. Mann & Co., 207 7th. Gas Irons, Ranges and Water Heaters.

S. Shedd & Bro. Co., 432 9th n.w.

ALWAYS BEAR IN MIND The best, least expensive and quickest way to obtain good, reliable help is through the proven THE HELP WANTED COLUMNS -OF-THE STAR

MISS A. S. BARRON DEAD.

MAIN 2440.

Lifelong Resident of Washington Passes Away After Long Illness.

Miss Annaline Semans Barron, a lifelong resident of this city, died at the residence of her cousin, Miss Annie S. Harkness, 3112 Q street, yesterday, after a long illness. The funeral will take place from her late residence at 4 o'clock to-

Miss Barron was a native of Washington, and was eighty-five years old. She was born in the old first ward. daughter of Henry and Mary Harkness Barron, she lived with the family of her uncle, the late Thomas F. Harkness, for more than seventy years, being regarded by his children as almost a mother. She was one of the original members of the Western Presbyterian Church. She is survived by a brother, Samuel H. Barron.

Pastor Is Granted Vacation.

Rev. William W. McMaster, patsor of the First Baptist Church, early next week will begin a ten-week vacation in California. The clergyman plans to defor the coast Sunday evening. The vacation was granted at a meeting of the congregation held last night. It also was announced that no Sunday evening services will be held in the First Baptist Church during the pastor's absence from Colored Pupils in Field Games. The first outdoor field games of the Colored Public School Athletic League will be held on the campus at Howard University June 8. All the colored schools of the city are expected to have repre-sentatives entered. The Star has offered a trophy to the champion track team of the league. The regular events as printed in the P. S. A. L. Athletic Handbook will be the events of the meet, and are arranged to suit boys of different weights. Besides the "central" trophy, the school team in each division that scores more points than other school teams in that division will be awarded the division championship trophles of the respective divisions. The playground directors in the various parts of the city are giving services as track coaches.

To Entertain Engineers.

The executive committee of the Chamber of Commerce at a meeting yesterday afternoon authorized the expenditure of $300 to aid in entertaining the 2,500 members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers who will visit Washington tomorrow. The organization of engineers is holding its annual convention in Pittsburgh and 2,500 of the delegates will come

Blotches on Face Untold Itching

And Burning. Eczema on Neck the costumes are handsome, but the swan, the great white swan, as the story Immensely. Now Cured.

439 Ashford St., New York, N. Y .- "My eczema started suddenly by a lot of blotches breaking out on my face. The neck and face were about the worst parts, although there was quite a breaking out of the blotches on my arms. "It caused me untold itching and burning.

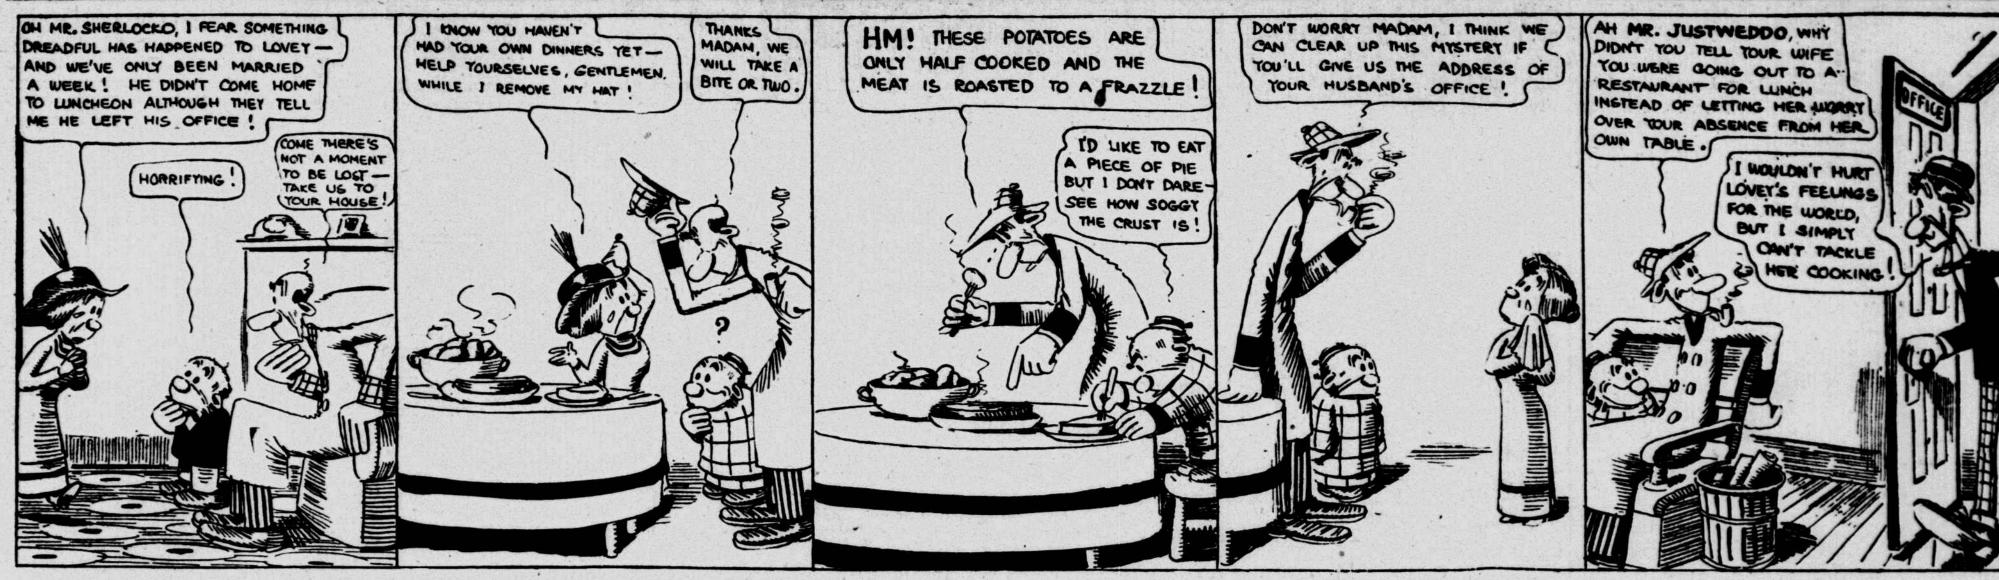

Through which I lost a lot of sleep. I tried the usual remedies and a lot of other worthless things, then a friend of mine suggested that I trains both ways, including the Royal ing picture films also will be displayed. give Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment a Limited .- Advt. trial, which I did, much to my satisfaction. Why, would you believe it, the very first night I washed with Cuticura Soap and applied the Cuticura Ointment I was relieved immensely from that itching and burning feeling. I then continued the use of the Cuticura Soap and Ointment for about three months and now I am completely cured of the blotches and there is not a mark on my face. I continue to use the Cuticura Soap, however, as I think that no sensible person should be without it." (Signed) W. G. Donovan, jr., Sept. 18, 1911.

Not only are Cuticura Soap and Ointment most valuable in the treatment of eczemas and other distressing cruptions of skin and scalp, but no Church. Part of the property is vacant his name lawfully changed to Joseph other emollients do so much for pimples, black, and the remainder to complete waiter. other emollients do so much for pimples, black-heads, red, rough and oily skins, itching, scaly houses on K street. It has a frontage scalps, dry, thin and falling hair, chapped of 120 feet on K street and 148 feet on hands and shapeless nails, nor do it so economically. A single cake of Cuticura Soap (25c) and box of Cuticura Soap (25c) and box of Cuticura Ointment (50c) are often sumbound in the color of Cuticura Soap (25c) and box of Cuticura Ointment (50c) are often sumbound in the cuticura Soap (25c) and box of Cuticura Soap (25c) and box of Cuticura Soap (25c) and square (25c) and cuticura Soap cally. A single cake of Cuticura Soap (25c) and

Sherlocko the Monk

The Mystery of the Untasted Luncheon

By Gus Mager AH MR. JUSTWEDDO, WHY

START ON TRIP TONIGHT GOV. MANN AND STAFF

At Least One Hundred Cham- Guests of Ladies' Association, and ber of Commerce Members Going on Outing.

The hundred or more members of the Chamber of Commerce and their friends who are to make the annual excursion arranged by that organization will board fort, Va., at 6:45 o'clock this evening. in the library of the historic mansion. The party is to be gone until Monday Chamber of Commerce to give the Washspent on the James river, and the party will leave Old Point Comfort Sun-

Every arrangement for the comfort and easure of the members has been made the committee in charge, headed by he chamber, left here last night and will improvements that are contemplated. in the party tomorrow morning at Old Gov. Mann expressed satisfaction at the today for the purpose of urging the National Hardware Association, now holding its annual meeting in the Virginia city, to come to Washington next year.

Those members of the party who wish to do so will remain at Old Point Comfort and Norfolk Saturday to watch the launching of the battleship Texas. They will take a train late in the afternoon to eatch the rest of the party at Richmond.

$1.25 to Baltimore and Return Saturdays and Sundays via Pennsylvania railroad. Tickets good to return until 9 a.m. Monday. All regular trains except the "Congressional Limited."—Advt.

"LOHENGRIN" WORTH HEARING Baltimore Cast Well Fitted for Wagner's Opera. With an enlarged orchestra, admirably conducted by Carlo Nicosia, and a cast liver his final sermon before departing in all respects finely fitted for the work, the Aborn English Grand Opera Company last evening, at the National Theater, presented Wagner's beautiful opera, Lohengrin," in a manner that seemed thoroughly satisfying to a large audience. The advance notices stated the Baltimore company would be brought into requisition for the presentation of this opera. It s a good one throughout, and if the orchestra also was brought up to the Baltimore standard ft is to be hoped Washington may be found worthy to have it

No opera of the great Wagner, perhaps, is so popular as "Lohengrin." This doubtless is due in large measure to its mew of Occidental, Cal. romantic story of peculiar charm and its The cross for women is an exact dup famous wedding march. But last even- cate of the cross awarded to men, exce ing so many of its beauties were unfolded that one wonders why it is not gold and enamel, in the center of which more often sung here. The appreciation is the escutcheon of the United States of it by last evening's audience was both generous and general.

Aida Hemmi seems appropriately fitted for the part of the hapless Elsa. Her wreath of laurel. This wreath is attached stage presence, the quiet modesty and to a white ribbon, while on the pin, or dignity of her portrayal and the sweetness of her beautiful voice seemed to blend in making her an ideal maid of Brabant. And from out of the land of the Holy Grail she could not have chosen a more gallant and talented knight to champion her cause than was Leonid Samoloff, the Russian tenor, who won the Russian tenor, who won his way to high favor here last season. His voice is clear and powerful, yet he has the power to make it as sweetly sympathetic and beautiful as the role ands. Herbert Watrous, too, heard to great advantage as Henry I of Germany. His gorgeous voice, rich, mellow and of splendid range, gave keen pleasure to those who heard it last evening. Marie L. Rogers, who sang the role of Ortrud, is gifted with a rich. musical contralto that seemed especially pleasing when she did not sacrifice her music to the desire to intensify her dramatic emphasis of her lines. Harry Luckstone, who sang the role of Telramund, also has a tendency to exploit the volume rather than the heavy of the celebrate lumbus, has arranged for the celebration of the holy sacrifice of the mass to be held in St. Mary's Church, 5th street between G and H streets northwest, Sunday morning. Most Rev. Giovanni Bonzano, apostolic delegate, will celebrate mund, also has a tendency to exploit the volume rather than the beauty of his excellent baritone. The role of the Herald, sung in German by Arthur Green, was picturesque.

This will be the first appearance of Most Rev. Bonzano in a religious function in this country. A special musical program and Arms, Too. Gave Cuti- goes, which drew the mystic boat of Lohengrin out of the land of the grail cura Soap and Ointment a to champion Elsa's cause, was unmister of minor detail, it crept prominently into notice last evening, while the white doves that drew the boat back to the land of Parsifal seemed lost in the dis-

This comment, however, does not alter o'clock tomorrow morning.

the fact that in the opinion of many E. P. Cowell of the Franklin Insti"Lohengrin." as presented last evening, tute of Philadelphia will explain the hisis one of the best productions of the tory of this work, which dates from 1517 Aborn operatic season

$1.25 Baltimore and Return,

PURCHASES CORNER PROPERTY. Harry Wardman May Build Apartment House on Site. The property at the northeast corner of Vermont avenue and K street northwest has been purchased by Harry and Mrs. Charles Walter, having been Wardman. It is the site at one time educated and reared by them, and that selected for the church building pro-prosed to be erected by the Unitarian of Walter, and for that reason desired selected for the church building pro-Vermont avenue, with an alley on the

VISIT MOUNT VERNON Jacob Fussell Bequeaths Share of

Luncheon.

tary, was also a member of the party.

REWARD FOR HEROISM.

Fund for Women.

order, and ordering that this cross

REV. BONZANO TO PRESIDE

brate Mass at Special Service.

Lecture on Panama Canal.

the six locks and the eighty-five-foot lift of the large vessels will be shown.

Change in Name Authorized.

decree permitting Joseph Charles Keleher

Union station, 8:20 a.m.-Advt.

has been arranged.

manity.

bella Rouser, both formerly employed as Are Entertained at bookkeepers for the late Jacob Fussell when he was in business here, are re-membered with bequests of $500 each in the will of their former employer, dated September 22, 1910, which has been filed Gov. and Mrs. Mann of Virginia and the for probate. Other monetary bequests ingovernor's staff were the guests of the clude $1,000 to Clarissa Davis, sister of Mount Vernon Ladies' Association today the deceased, and $500 to another sister, at the home of George Washington, at Hannah E. Hopkins. Five nieces are Mount Vernon. Gov. Mann's party ar-given $100 each. the Norfolk and Washington steamer they were welcomed by the regents, who Northland and sail for Old Point Comwere the hostesses, at a luncheon, served tons. To a son, Mordecai T. Fussell, rived about 1 o'clock this afternoon, when In the library of the historic mansion. are given nine portions, to another son, Accompanying Gov. and Mrs. Mann Francis Fussell, six portions and the remorning, and will visit Richmond, where was the board of visitors, appointed by plans have been made by the Richmond the governor, which includes Lieut Gov. Richmond, L. L. Lewis of Richmond, wife, Caroline C. Fussell, and his chil-Warren P. Taylor of Richmond and A. D. Brockett of Alexandria. Col. Benja-Craft, and does not leave them anything min P. Owen, Gov. Mann's private secrein his will. He also directs the Guaranty Trust Company of New York, named as The regents showed the governor's executor, to cancel any obligations due party over the estate and explained the him by his children which may be found

Mr. Fussell changed the division of the way in which the estate is maintained. The party will leave Mount Vernon at remaining estate. The codicil directs that Miss Jane A. Riggs, daughter of the stead of twenty-one portions, and of these founder of the Riggs National Bank, was Mordecal T. Fussell is given four shares, stead of twenty-one portions, and of these unanimously elected vice regent from the District of Columbia yesterday to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mrs. and two shares each to the grandchildren. Barnes, the District vice regent. Mrs. Janet M. E. Riggs, Miss Riggs' Arthur and Anna Fussell.

mother, was among the original twenty-three vice regents, appointed in 1858. It WORLD'S PIGEON RECORD. was upon her resignation, in 1868, that Mrs. Barnes was elected from the District, making Miss Riggs, therefore, the third vice regent that has represented Remarkable Flight of Washington the District in the association. Miss Riggs lives at the old Riggs home, 1617 I street northwest. The council will close The 200-mile race of the Greater Washington Concourse Association was flown Monday from Cameron, W. Va., when 500 choice racers, well conditioned for the fray, were liberated by J. C. Gassman, who telephoned: Birds liberated at 10:30, weather cloudy, wind north-American Cross of Honor Creates west, and proved to be the fastest race known to the annals of the sport. The With a view of creating a fund to en record was held by ... C. Lutz, a Bufdow a special cross of honor to be awardfalo fancier, with a speed of 1,960 yards ed to women for the most heroic act in a minute. The report is as follows: saving life, a resolution authorizing the election of associate members of the Riley order, and ordering that this cross be	Hancock & Merrill

	Charles Austerhoff
conferred annually, was passed by he	Milton Clark board of governors of the American Cross	Harry Grinder of Honor at a meeting held yesterday.	Thomas Kulle
	Riley A. Huntt
The cross conferred on men was award-	Harry Fairbanks
ed to John H. Rapp of New York city.	Robert J. O'Nelll
Mr. Rapp has been twice honored by re-	Bernard Jewett ceiving both the silver and gold life-sav-	A. C. Buscall
ing medal of honor of the United States	W. H. Sarton government, for rescuing a number of	Fred E. Dismer persons from drowning.	Fred Engle
The special cross for women was	Elmer Koch awarded to Miss Stella Emily Bartholo-	William Koch
mew of Occidental, Cal.	Redden & Gately
The group for any	Hudson Pettit
The cross for women is an exact dupli-	Harley Gordon cate of the cross awarded to men, except it is smaller. It is a Maltese cross of	E. C. Rollins gold and enamel, in the center of which	A. G. Thomas is the escutcheon of the United States in	George J. Gateau its proper colors, and on the four points	J. C. Ladd thereof the letters A. C. H. and the figures 1906, the whole surrounded by a	E. J. Krahling wreath of laurel This wreath is attached	Dan C. Hattiey

OBSERVE ASCENSION DAY

Services Held in Episcopal and $1.00 to Harpers Ferry and Martins-Catholic Churches Yesterday. burg; $1.35 Berkeley Springs; $2.00 Cumberland and return. Sunday, May 19, Baltimore and Ohio. Special train leaves Epicopalians and Catholics observed

Ascension day yesterday at services in the the Bethlehem Chapel of the Holy Nativ- signed, and after a vacation of a month assault. ity at Mount St. Alban, Canons De Vries | will practice law in the District. New Apostolic Delegate Will Celeand Williams and Revs. Roland Cotton Smith and George Fiske Dudley assist-Washington Chapter, Knights of Co- o'clock.

lumbus, has arranged for the celebra-At 10 o'clock Mgr. Russell celebrated high mass in St. Patrick's Catholic Church, while at the same hour Rev. Joseph F. McGee was the celebrant of the mass at the Shrine of the Sacred Heart. Services in Emmanuel Episcopal Church, in Anacostia, were conducted by Rev. W. G. Davenport, the rector, while Rev. E. F. Buckey celebrated mass at 9 o'clock in St. Matthew's Catholic Church.

Dancing Classes Entertain.

A kirmess was given at the parish hall of St. Andrew's Church last evening by "The isthmian canal," generally known the dancing classes of Miss O. A. Thomp-

Soon after the civil war he removed to Washington, where he lived until about eleven years ago, when he came to Rock of the Franklin Institute of Philadelphia will explain the history of this work, which dates from 1517 and in which so many nations have have the six locks and the eighty-five-foot lift of the large vessels will be above.

Those taking part were Charlotte Hughes, Donnelly Garretson, Herman Daves to the company organized as a benevolent association. This association. This association. This association. This association are the members of the chorus which, will be broadened into a regimental organization at an early date.

Officers elected were: Col. Richard D. Soon after the civil war he removed to Washington, where he lived until about which was necessary ago, when he came to Rock wille. Throughout the war he served as the evening at Eagles' Hall, when the members of the company organized as a benevolent association. This association. This association are the members of the chorus which, will be broadened into a regimental organization at an early date.

Officers elected were: Col. Richard D. Soon after the civil war he removed to Washington, where he lived until about which was he served as the evening at Eagles' Hall, when the members of the company organized as a benevolent association. This association. This association are the members of the company organized as a benevolent association. This association are the members of the control of the isst evening at Eagles' Hall, when the war he served as the even years ago, when he came to Rock will. Throughout the war he served as the even years ago, when he came to Rock will. Throughout the war he served as the even years ago, when he came to Rock will. Throughout the war he served as the even years ago, when he came to Rock will. Throughout the war he served as a therefore the civil war he removed to be were the members of the company organized as a therefore the civil war he removed to be were the civil war he removed to be were the color of the yesterday by the committee on labor. since the organization of the company, The bill has the indorsement of Presi-May 16, 1896, and "taps" were sounded by Chief Justice Clabaugh has signed a dent Taft.

Boy Bitten by Dog.

to change his name to Joseph Charles Big Yield of Cotton in 1911. Walter. In the petition filed by Attorney Leon Tobriner for Mr. Keleher he sets forth that since his infancy he has resided with his uncle and aunt, Mr. per acre, the largest, with one exception, since 1867.

Address on Education.

Prof. L. B. Moore, dean of the Teach-

WILL AID BOOKKEEPERS. BAND CONCERT TODAY.

By the U. S. Soldiers' Home Band. Band Stand-4 to 5:20 o'clock. Estate to Former Employes. John S. M. Zimmermann, Director. Mrs. Annie E. Benner and Miss Isa-PROGRAM:

March, "Love Is King"......Innes Overture, "Masaniello".....Auber Song for cornet, "Take Me Back to the Garden of Love"...Osborne Musician Claude M. Wallace. Selection, "Carmen"......Bizet Rad Oddity, "Red Rose Rag," Wenrich Excerpts from "The Chocolate

Valse Lente, "Valsant Poupee," Poldini Finale, "Oh, You Beautiful "The Star Spangled Banner."

COMPETE FOR DIXON MEDAL.

ample provision had been made for his Orators at Georgetown University in Annual Contest.

Student orators of Georgetown Uni versity competed in the annual contest for the Dixon medal vesterday at Gaston Hall. Mrs. William Dixon, donor of the medal, was among those present. The judges of the orations, Charles B Hanford, Thomas M. Pierce, jr., and Clark Waggaman, gave a sealed decision, Musical numbers were given by University Orchestra and Glee Club. contestants and their subjects follow "Condemnation of the Conspirators" Shakespeare), Stephen W. Carroll, '12; "The New South" (Grady), David L. Waldron, '13; "How the Flag Was Saved" (O'Reilly), Francis A. I. Contaker); "The Buccaneer's Revenge' (Brady), John M. Murphy, '14; "Speech of Marc Antony" (Shakespeare), Eugene M. Carr, '13; "Appeal for Intervention in Cuba" (Thurston), James P. Needham, '13; "The Massacre" (McCarthy, S. J.), Harold J. Carton, '12; "Tom, Tom, the Piper's Son," Messrs: Golibart Rodriguez, Kelly, Fairbank; "Constantius and the Lion" (Croly), Eliot Wright, jr., '15; "Aux Italiens," Delphin V. Rodriguez, '15; "Nothing to Wear" (Butler), Edward V. Heiskell '14. "Tousseint Edward V. Heiskell, '14; "Toussaint L'Overture" (Phillips), Thomas C. O'Sullivan, jr., '14.

ADVISES LABOR ORGANIZATION.

Representative Wilson Urges Workingmen to Stick Together. Representative Wilson of Pennsylvania last night addressed the meeting of the Building Trades Mechanics' Council at Plasterers' Hall, 41/2 street and Pennsylvania avenue, and urged workingmen to stand together that they might improve general working conditions and receive

He said that general conditions in the mills and factories are improving and that the improvements are due to the workingmen being organized. He used as an example the Steel Corporation, and said that by complete organization the men can get what they want, to a certain extent, whereas individually they will be unable to gain any points.

The will of Hattersly W. Talbott, who recently died here, has been admitted to probate in the orphans' court. The entire estate, the value of which is estimated at from $60,000 to $75,000, is bequeathed to the testator's widow, Mrs.

P. Y. WATERS TAKES UP LAW. General Manager of Chesapeake

Beach Railway Resigns. Paul Y. Waters, for eleven years secretary-treasurer and general manager of The Bishop of Washington preached in the Chesapeake Beach railway, has re-

Mr. Waters was made general manager of the company when he was twentythree years old, and under his administration of the road, although the traffic has been heavy, there has been no accident nor any serious injury to a passenger. He also was manager of the amusement company at the beach.

He was graduated in law from the National University in 1902. He probably will be legal adviser to President Jones of the Chesapeake Reach railway.

containing sixty acres, was sold at public auction to James B. Veirs of Rockville for $4,900.

Rev. John Henderson of Georgetown, Del., has been called to the pastorate of the Rockville Presbyterian Church, and it is understood he will accept. He is a brother of former Judge James B. Henderson of this place. The church has been without a regular pastor since the resignation of Rev. Robert L. McNair,

Several years ago. ing at the service, which was held at 11 three years old, and under his adminisof the Chesapeake Beach railway.

ANNIVERSARY IS OBSERVED. Company I. 1st Regiment, D.C.N.G. Organizes Benevolent Association.

The fourteenth anniversary of Com-

Hughes-Borah Bill Favored.

A favorable report on the Hughes-lorah bill, creating a national industrial lummission, was filed in the House sterday by the committee committee was paid to the sterday by the committee committee was paid to the sterday by the committee captain of Company I, Burnard D. Funeral services will be held at noon tomorrow from the family residence here, burnard D. Funeral services will be commorrow from the family residence here, burnard D. Funeral services will be commorrow from the family residence here, burnard D. Funeral services will be commorrow from the family residence here, burnard D. Funeral services will be commorrow from the family residence here, burnard D. Funeral services will be held at noon tomorrow from the family residence here, burnard D. Funeral services will be commorrow from the family residence here, burnard D. Funeral services will be conducted by Rev. Samble of Masons of Rock-fundamental provides and the fundamental provides and the fundame ceased members of the company who died since the organization of the company, was 36,684,000 acres, or about one and a half million more than had been previously estimated. The yield was 207 pounds per acre, the largest, with one exception, since 1867.

Joseph R. Drinkard, Alexander T. Formester, James E. Gately, John A. Gayer, George R. Glascoe, Albert J. Harkins, John E. Lynch, Elvin M. Lurky, B. McCauley, Louis Mallett, John A. O'Toole, Warren V. Reed, Henry T. Teel and William D. B. Zell.

ROCKVILLE AND COUNTY NEWS ITEMS AND NOTES

School Orators to Contest Sat urday-Mrs. H. W. Talbott Gets Estate.

cial Correspondence of The Star.

ROCKVILLE, Md., May 16, 1912. The annual oratorical contests among ed electric process that guarantees perfect pupils of the public schools of Montgomery county will be held in the courthouse here next Saturday. The patrons of the throughout the county are understood to be much interested, and a large number of persons from all parts of the county are expected to be in attendance. In the morning there will be a contest mong representatives of the high and larger grammar schools of the county, those to participate being as follows: Vice right. Eisinger Bros., 2109 7th n.w. Poolesville High School, Robert Hempstone; Rockville High School, Gai-Phone Your Want Ad to The Star, ther Warfield; Gaithersburg High School, Carroll Wiley; Sandy Spring High School

School, Graham Getty. District School Winners.

Elgie Pulvis; Damascus High School

Harold L. Baker; Woodside Grammar

A contest recently was held in each district of the county among representatives of the smaller schools, and the winners of these will participate in a nolly, '15; "The Leper" (Willis), Benja-min J. Schwind, jr., '13; "There Is a Green Hill Far Away" (Ralph Whit-senting Laytonsville district; Gorman contest to be held in the afternoon. They senting Laytonsville district; Gorman Griffith, Clarksburg district; William Canoy, Colesville district; Charles E. Allnutt, Darnestown district; John Lafferty, Olney district; William Troxall, Gaithersburg district; Terra Ingalls, Potomac district; Guy Jewell, Barnesville district.

The judges will be members of the faculty of Emerson School of Oratory, Washington. An orchestra will be in at tendance, and there will be an address and other features. Dr. Ryan Devereux of the county school board will preside. The first and second prizes in each contest will be $10 and $5 in gold, respec-The oratorical contests were inaug rated several years ago by Brainard H. Warner of Kensington. They have grown n interest until they are now looked upor as the event of the year in public scho circles. Mr. Warner did not offer prize this year, but the school commiss made the necessary appropriation. Miss Alma Frances Isaacs, seventeer years old, and Mr. Carl August Hans Beyer, twenty-eight, both of Pals, Va. were married in Rockville yesterday aft ernoon by Rev. F. M. Richardson, pastor and Mrs. Willard G. Davenport of the of the Southern Methodist Church, the engagement of their daughter, Miss Irene queathed to the testator's widow, Mrs. Laura Talbott, who is named as executrix without bond. Louis Schwartzbeck of the vicinity of Quince Orchard, this county, was arrested yesterday on a warrant sworn out by Tudor U. Heeter, also of the Quince Orchard neighborhood, who charges him with assault. Schwartzbeck furnished bail for his appearance in the police court here for trial and then swore out a warrant against Heeter, charging him with wife, Cynthia Hahn, today asked per The farm of the late William Haywood situated a few miles from Rockville and containing sixty acres, was sold at pub-several years ago. Capt. George C. Lewis, a former well known resident of Washington, died at his home here yesterday. He had long eral months had been confined to his ton Grand Opera Chorus, composed of Revised figures on the cotton crop of 1911, issued by the Department of Agriculture and based on a special investigation and the ginners' report to the centre sus bureau, indicate that the area planted sus bureau, indicate that the area planted ish-American War was proposed. The following members of the company were present: Col. R. D. Simms, Maj. T. Walsolvency and Bankruptcy." He is a recognized authority on this subject. Those following members of the company were present: Col. R. D. Simms, Maj. T. Walsolvency and Bankruptcy." He is a recognized authority on this subject. Those following members of the company were present: Col. R. D. Simms, Maj. T. Walsolvency and Bankruptcy." He is a recognized authority on this subject. Those following members of the company were present: Col. R. D. Simms, Maj. T. Walsolvency and Bankruptcy." He is a recognized authority on this subject. Those for the blessed Virgin will be carbicated in the procession by Misses will be determined in the procession by Misses to take the examination on commercial to take the examination on commercial law, and all who pass will be entitled to the certificate issued by the American In-

Mrs. Talbott Gets Estate.

Cadet Injured by Auto.

CITY ITEMS.

Shower Baths, Stag Hotel, 608 9th. Great When You Are Undecided What to serve your guest, make it Imperial Export, the quality beer of delicious flavor, at your dealer's, or Washington Brewery, Linc. 254. $1.25 for 24 bottles.

Drawing tables, Fred A. Schmidt,719 18th. Today's Big Double Feature Show.

Edgar Poe's Raven in two reels and Peter the Great. The Virginia Theater, Send the Fine Carpets to Conger's, 23d & N. Y. ave., if you're particular about the way they'll be cleaned. Patent-

The Pungent Aroma of Hope elements—all are present in HEURICH'S BEERS. For health and enjoyment drink Maerzen and Senate: 2 doz. $1.75; 2 doz. Lager, $1.50. Bot. rebate, 50c.Tet W. 1600.

Lumber and Millwork for Repairing.

ANACOSTIA

Additional electric street lights will placed in Anacostia and vicinity, according to the announced plans of local of

A meeting of the special committee of the Men's Social Club of Emmanuel Church was held last evening at the home of Franklin S. Gicker, 1514 U street. Plans were discussed for increasing the membership of the organization. and it was decided to hold an open meeting the second Thursday in June. The policemen of the eleventh precinct, Anacostia, have completed the taking of the census of the community, and have presented their results to headquarters. It is expected that the total figure will reach 15,000, and not 16,000, as at first thought. Besides Anacostia, the enumerators covered Hillsdale, Congress Heights, Garfield, Good Hope, East Washington Heights, Randle Highlands and Twining

Secretary David C. Fountain of th East Washington Heights Citizens' Association yesterday sent a letter to the Commissioners requesting that they give immediate consideration to the matter of extending the city water supply to that ceremony taking place at the home of the minister. They left for Washington immediately afterward.

Church, the engagement of the conditions and the conditions are conditions as the condition of the conditions are conditions. They left for Washington immediately afterward.

Church, the engagement of the conditions are conditions as the conditions are conditionally as the condition are conditionally as the conditional conditions are conditionally as the condition are conditionally as the condition are conditionally as the condition are conditionally as the conditional conditions are conditionally as the conditional conditions are conditionally as the condition are conditionally as the conditional condition are conditionally as the conditional conditions are conditionally as the conditional conditional conditional conditional conditional riage will probably take place some time this summer, although the exact date has

WOULD ADOPT GRANDCHILD Cynthia Hahn.

Abram I. Hahn, an employe of the bureau of engraving and printing, and his Roll Films mission of the District Supreme Court to At 5c adopt their grandchild, Ellen E. Hahn, nine years old. The child has been liv-

Saturday Afternoon.

To effect the permanent organization bed. He leaves his wife, one son, Dr. George E. Lewis of Rockville, and a brother, Henry H. Lewis of North Troy, berg Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock, Capt. Lewis was a native of Vermont. at which all those who have been inter-

Children of St. Joseph's Catholic Church to March.

The annual May procession of the chilican Institute of Banking listened to the dren of the parish of St. Joseph's Catholast lecture of the law course which has lic Church, 2d and C streets northeast. a bugler.

The organization of a District of Columbia Volunteer Association of the Spanin the chapter rooms at 1214 F street.
Ish-American War was proposed. The Solvency and Bankruptcy." He is a rec-lia Hathaway.

The crown of flowers which will be placed on the statue of Mary in the church after the procession will be carried by Mary Rousseau and Teresa O'Reilly. The banner bearers are Frances McGrath and Madeline Fisher.

Arnold Massage Vibrator

Keeps away the family doctor. You'll never have a doctor's bill if you keep an Arnold Vibrator in Cures Neuralgia and Headaches IT WILL BRING BACK THE PINK BLUSH TO YOUR CHEEKS. Massage for Deafness, Head Noises.

Ringing in the Ears, Backaches, Spinal Trouble. Cures Rheumatism and Stomach and Bowel Troubles, Cramps, Sallow Complexion, Lumbago, Kidney Trouble and other ills.

Electric Webster, 717 9th St. N.W.

Dookbinding Experts. Books, Magazines and Periodicals bound at small cost. HODGES' Big Bookbindery. St. Entrance.

Headquarters for ALLIGATOR PEARS, CANTALOUPES, Watermelons, Cherries, Peaches, MANGOES.

California Fruit Co., 1220 G St. N.W., Next to Dulin & Martin Co.

Baskets of Fruits.

BLANK BOOKS, MOTH PAPER AND BAGS, FINE STATIONERY. The E. Morrison Paper Co. OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA. 1009 PA. AVE. N.W.

THE FINEST THAT NATURE PRODUCES Spring Time Fruits.

Watermelons, Cherries, Peaches,

Cantaloupes, Pears, Mangoes,

Sapodillas, Alligator Pears. The Fruit & Nut Shop, 1231 G St.

Candy Department. Fountain Drinks. We Develop

Our Photo Department is could ped with every modern appliance Experts in charge. In developing Per Roll. films we always get best results M. A. Leese, Anti-Trust Photo Dealer,

We Are Specializing On GLASS FOR AUTOMOBILE Hodgkin's PANILY PAINT STORE

In Search of an Optician? If your Glasses are Not Right go to HUSKE, THE OPTICIAN, 616 14th St. N.W.

FACTORY ON PREMISES. 香茶茶茶茶茶茶茶茶茶茶茶茶茶茶 Christian Xander's TEBBIOLO SPUMANTE, A delicious Red Italian Sparkling Wine, $1.50 A BOTTLE.

909 Seventh Street.

1890-Established 22 Years-1912. 70U employ experienced experts to buy your merchandise—why not

> We write the right ads to make advertising good advertising.

Star Ad Writing Bureau, Kobert W. Cox,

C. C. Archibald.